Acline

Acline, Mar. 13.—Messrs. Dudley Colclasure and Charles M. Thomas, his brother-in-law, ought to be sure of fish to supply their needs the rest of their lives, for the two have bought the most famous fishing bank on Alligator creek. They have obtained from Governor Gilchrist all that portion of his Alligator creek property between the railroad track and the creek extending from the railroad trestle to the big bridge on the section line. Many a Punta Gorda tourist has carried away a long string of fine fish from this bank, while in certain circles there is likely to be some energetic mourning when the fences exclude all but the happy owners and their guests from the joys of fishing at the pet spot.

Moreover, Mr. Colclasure is preparing to build his temporary little home right close to the best spot of all, and ought to be about able to cast his line from the contemplated piazza. The new owners of this especially desirable bit of creek front are from near Joplin, Missouri, and will devote all their time to converting the place into a beautiful and appropriate southern home. Mrs. F. M. Adams, sister of Mr. Colclasure, has joined them at the Sabel place where the party are domiciled, while Messrs. Colclasure and Thomas erect their temporary home. A very attractive member of the party is Mrs. Kate McAllister, also from the vicinity of Joplin. The ladies will probably

There must be a good reason for this. It is because alum was found to be unhealthful.

Royal Baking Powder is made of cream of tartar, derived from grapes, a natural food product, and contains no alum nor other questionable ingredients.
